

State of Indiana

To the sheriff of Harrison County Greeting:
You are hereby commanded that of the estate of General W. Johnston, in your State you cause to be made the sum of Eighteen dollars seventy four and one half cents which Mary Clark (a woman of colour) on the Sixth day of November Eighteen hundred and twenty one recovered of said General W. Johnston in our Supreme Court for the costs and Charges by her expended in and about the prosecution Of an appeal wherein the said Mary Clark was Appellant of which the said General W. Johnston is convicted [sic] as appears to us of record.

And have you that money at our Clerks office of the Supreme Court at Corydon on the first Saturday in January next and have you then there this writ.

Witness Henry P. Coburn Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State aforesaid [sic] at Corydon this first day of December 1821.

H.P. Coburn C.S.C.